Seminars that make a difference

Our 2024 seminar programme features the best tax and accounting lecturers, covering topics that will benefit your clients, including:

Quarterly Tax Update

with Tim Good, Giles Mooney or Mark Ward

By far the best way to keep your tax knowledge up to date throughout the year. Our flagship quarterly tax updates focus on the relevant tax issues affecting your clients while providing practical tips on how to address these issues. These are 'must-attend' seminars for all tax practitioners.

Finance Bill

with Giles Mooney or Mark Ward

The annual legislation contained in the Government's Finance Bill can have a significant impact on your clients. These seminars will get to grips with the latest changes, how they can affect your clients and what you can do about it.

Annual Accounting Update

with Guy Loveday

Staying up to speed with the latest changes to Accounting Standards is vital to ensure all aspects of financial reporting on your client accounts are correct. And with financial reporting changes on the horizon, don't risk being left in the dark. The last part of the seminar focuses on auditing for those for whom it matters.

Personal Tax – What you need to know

with Rebecca Benneyworth

This seminar will look at the practical impact of changes (and the absence of changes!) to personal tax during 2024. Inevitably, mention will be made of basis period reform and the continuing issues for businesses that have decided not to change their accounting date, and an update on where we are with the MTD programme. Beyond that, the precise seminar content will depend on announcements made by the Chancellor, but the seminar will address tax advice and, most importantly, the practical issues related to income tax, capital gains tax, and inheritance tax.

The Definitive OMB Course

with Mark Ward

This seminar will explore the assorted tax issues affecting owner-managers and their companies. It will focus on the tax planning opportunities that will enable clients to minimise their current and potential tax liabilities without falling foul of the various misguided beliefs and understandings that have grown over the years. The seminar will update advisers on the when and why of incorporation, dividend v salary, spouse and family shareholdings, and the latest capital gains tax planning.
